TRAFFICKING

Drafted By: [REDACTED]

Date/Time Received: 08/06/2020 10:12 AM EDT

Details:

On 08/06/2020, at 10:12 a.m. Eastern Time, [REDACTED], date of birth [REDACTED], international cellular telephone number [REDACTED], address [REDACTED] Cambridge, UK, called the FBI National Threat Operations Center (NTOC) to report "significant" information related to the Epstein/Maxwell case.

[REDACTED] provided the following information:

In 2007, [REDACTED] was introduced to New York photographer Eliot Siegel, personal identifiers unknown, by mutual friends. Siegel asked [REDACTED] to attend a modeling event at the O2 Arena in London, England for a test shoot. [REDACTED] attended the event and discovered it was an annual S&M modeling event. While at the event, London photographer Patrick James Fitzgerald (or might be James Patrick Fitzgerald), personal identifiers unknown, spoke with [REDACTED] and offered to photograph her for modeling. Fitzgerald told [REDACTED] that she would be on the front cover of a magazine. While Fitzgerald was talking to [REDACTED], Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell came over and stared at [REDACTED]. Epstein and Maxwell did not say anything to Fitzgerald and only looked at her. [REDACTED] did not accept Fitzgerald's modeling offer.

Around a month after the event, [REDACTED] was contacted online by a subject (name unknown) in Miami, FL. The subject was a very handsome man and tried to start a romantic relationship with [REDACTED]. The subject and [REDACTED] were typing to each other, but at the same time were connected by a video chat with no audio. [REDACTED] saw the subject had a man standing behind him that appeared to be coaching him what to say. The subject did not know [REDACTED] could see the man. The subject tried to convince [REDACTED] to travel to Florida to meet with him. [REDACTED] got angry with the subject and told him that she was going to contact police and blocked him. [REDACTED] did not follow through and contact police because at the time she was dealing with other matter. At the time, [REDACTED] father was trying to sleep with her and she had been told that her neighbor was trying to film her in her home.

On 08/05/2020, [REDACTED] saw a news articles about Scott Borgerson, personal identifiers unknown, that included photos. [REDACTED] recognized Borgerson as the subject that contacted her online and tried to convince her to travel to Florida.

[REDACTED] believes her encounters are related to the Epstein/Maxwell case. [REDACTED] advised she also met Prince William in England and believes that might also be connected.
