I know that [REDACTED] asked you about scheduling a meeting on the church fraud case for next week. It would be good to schedule that – I think he is aiming for end of week.

Check with the Securities chiefs about a time for meetings on [REDACTED] (2 separate cases). [REDACTED] is ripe for early next week; [REDACTED] late.

[REDACTED] may want to have a check-in meeting with the Epstein team. He gets regular email updates, but he might want to just talk about status of things.

[REDACTED],

Are there any meetings I should try to get on the calendar for next week or even this afternoon? Thanks!
