Thanks, that works for the team. In case it's helpful, I'm attaching the list you sent us of Geoff's excerpts, so that nobody needs to search for it.

Could you do a little earlier, maybe around 330?

We think it would be helpful to have a call to talk through the perjury issue-- would it be possible to have a call later today, perhaps around 5?

We should preview that both memos have expanded considerably based on the comments and suggestions, so it may be helpful to do an additional turn once you're able to review so we're sending up the best (and not unnecessarily rushed) products -- it would give everybody some breathing room, I think, if we aimed for very polished final versions early next week. But if you both have very few comments on the next rounds, they likely could get pushed up as early as tomorrow.
