[REDACTED]:

We are in receipt of your July 26, 2020 letter. On behalf of the Co-Executors of the Estate of Jeffrey E. Epstein, we can confirm the following: (i) Section 2.5(B) of The 1953 Trust has not been and will not be used by the Co-Executors to suggest that any current or former employee who chooses to meet or provide information to law enforcement as part of any ongoing investigation will be retaliated against in any way, or will lose any employment benefit, or any other benefit, inheritance, or bequest under the 1953 Trust as a result of meeting with or providing information to law enforcement; (ii) the Co-Executors have not made any distributions to Ghislaine Maxwell and will notify the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York in advance of any disbursement to her during the pendency of the criminal proceeding against her in the Southern District of New York; and (iii) the Co-Executors are not prepared at this time to waive any applicable privileges, including the attorney-client privilege, with respect to any materials obtained or seized by the Government.

Please let us know if you have additional questions.

Best regards,
Marc
